My Dear Mr Brewster

I don't know, that you will remember me it is so long since I have seen you, but remembering your interest in birds I hope you are one of the sparrows friends — I feel much distressed at the perpetrated slaughter. I wish the ornithologists would come out & defend them or the Natural Hist. Society, which can — be done! Don't you think that if people would take more interest to defend the bird our Mayor would recall his order. I wonder who wrote this article in Thursday's Advertiser signed "Justitia."

Believe me
very sincerely yours
